[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HILO, Hawaii, March 21. - What was first believed to be coercion of county road workers by lunas to make them contribute to a general fund for the defense of Auditor Maguire, in case he is arrested, is now thought to be merely the efforts of the members of the Hilo Labor Union to raise a fund for the defense of one of their members. Maguire is a member of the union.

The first intimation of the attempt to raise a defense fund, became known the first of this week, when Manuel Destrella, a road workman, told a clerk in one of the stores that he had been requested to give a portion of his pay, last Saturday toward the fund that was being raised to defend Maguire. The workman was indignant at the time and was hotly declaring that he would give no money to aid one who could afford to drive an automobile. "He has lots of money-I have little," he is quoted as

When Destrella was seen and asked about the matter, he denied that it was he who had said anything about the supposed coercion. On being pressed he said maybe it was Antone Destrella who was asked to support Maguire. Finally on being assured that there would be no "pilikia," whether he gave the money or not, he said that his road luna had asked him to help. Then added: "Spose other men kokua, me kokua too." Evidently the man felt that he was being questioned, because he had not given any of his money. To use his own words, he said, "Me cash money, go right
